CMM's Executive Talk - "Leadership: Emerging Dimensions"

KUCHING: An executive talk themed "Leadership: Emerging Dimensions" will provide an opportunity for the participants to explore the current emerging dimensions of leadership in Malaysia in relations to the global turbulence scenarios with particular reference to Malaysian economic, political and socio-culture.

The talk which is organized by Centre for Modern Management (CMM) on 15 February, 3pm at Dewan Asajaya, Holiday Inn Kuching will feature YBhg. Dato' Ghazali bin Dato' Mohd Yusoff, a successful entrepreneur. He is also a passionate and committed figure in human capital and leadership development nationwide.

Dato' Ghazali is actively contributing in the nation-building through his involvement and participation with many important posts that he holds. He is a board member in Malaysian Industrial Development Authority (MIDA), SIRIM Technical Committee for ISO 14000 Environmental Labeling, Honorary Executive Director, Business Council for Sustainable Development Malaysia, Panel Advisor on Energy Issues, Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation, Vice President, Selangor Council of Welfare and Social Development, Vice President, National Council of Welfare and Social Development, member of advisory panel on National Unity and many more.

Targeted for the CEOs, Directors, Managers, Executives, Academicians and interested individuals, the two-hour talk will emphasis on the current forces of nation-building and economic development. The talk will conclude with the exploration of establishing an ideal special breed of Malaysian leaders who are continuously relevant to face the global "turbulence age".
